2012
Cyber Peer-Led Team Learning (cPLTL)
National Adoption Workshop
June 25 – 27, 2012
Indianapolis, IN

Registration
The cost associated with participation in the two and a half day training will be fully covered. Space is limited.

For Registration Information
If your institution is interested in implementing cPLTL workshops and would like to have a team participate in the national adoption workshop, please complete the online Interest Form or contact:
Pratibha Varma-Nelson, Professor of Chemistry
Executive Director, Center for Teaching & Learning
Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis
755 West Michigan St., UL 1125, Indianapolis, IN 46202
E-mail: pvn@iupui.edu
Ph: (317)274-1300

About the Workshop
Join us this fall for a national workshop on implementing cyber Peer-Led Team Learning for STEM education across higher education.

The PLTL model of teaching has been successfully used in undergraduate STEM courses to reduce attrition. More than ten years of evaluation in a variety of higher education settings has shown clear and consistent results; students who participate in PLTL workshops are more successful than those who do not.

cPLTL is the adaption of the long-standing success of the PLTL model to an online learning environment. IUPUI has developed interactive cyber work spaces where students complete the workshop while using technology as a conduit for collaboration.

The Workshops can be implemented in a variety of courses across the full range of higher education institutions and have the potential to increase participation and achievement of students by providing deep learning, collaborative problem solving and opportunities for leadership.

Featured Speakers
Pratibha Varma-Nelson
Professor of Chemistry, IUPUI School of Science
Executive Director, Center for Teaching and Learning

Joshua Smith
Associate Dean, IUPUI School of Education
Director, Center for Urban & Multicultural Education

Thomas Pitzer
Biological Sciences, Florida International University

Sponsored By
The Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation
The William and Flora Hewlett Foundation

For more information about the workshop visit: http://ctl.iupui.edu/projects/cpltl/